Dr. Erin Elliott, Post Falls Family Dental

Dr. Erin Elliott was born and raised in Orange County, Calif. After playing college soccer in upstate New York at Houghton College and getting married to her husband of 9 years, Tom, she moved to Omaha, Neb., to attend Creighton University School of Dentistry.

She graduated in the top 5 of her class and moved to North Idaho to associate with Dr. Ken Lynn at Post Falls Family Dental.

She has worked for 4 years while being involved in the community by doing school visits, free dental days, and starting a dental team at Lake City Community Church teaming up with the Dirne Clinic.

She is able to balance her role as dentist and mother to her two sons Jameson and Jensen because her supporting husband stays home.

She loves to serve her family, her community, her patients, and her staff.
